

Ancestry Library Edition – Contains approximately 4,000 databases including the U.S. federal census images and indexes from 1790 to 1930; more than 1,000 historical maps; The American Genealogical Biographical Index (over 200 volumes); Daughters of the American Revolution Lineage (over 150 volumes); The Great Migration Begins: Immigrants to New England, 1620-1630; Social Security Death Index; WWI Draft Registration Cards; Federal Slave Narratives; and a strong Civil War collection. Available for in-library use only.

Computer commands, field names and mouse actions are in Italics.
Text that you must type is within single quote marks (' ').

To access Ancestry Library Edition:

Go to: RCPL Web site (<http://www.myrcl.com>)

Click on: research & learning

Click on: research tools

Click on: Genealogy

Locate Ancestry Library Edition

Click on: inside the library (Note: This database is not available from home!)

★ After each question below, click on the Home tab at top left of each page to begin next question.

1. My great grandmother, Lula Piper, died in South Carolina in the 1930's or 1940's. Is there a way to find her date of death?

- 1 Click the Search tab at the top of the page
- 2 Scroll down
- 3 Click the state of South Carolina on the U.S. map
- 4 Click South Carolina Death Records, 1821-1955
- 5 Type 'Lula' in the First Name box
- 6 Type 'Piper' in the Last Name box
- 7 Click Search

2. Can I found out who she was married to and how many children she had?

- 1 Click the Search tab at the top of the page
- 2 Click the state of South Carolina on the U.S. map
- 3 Click 1930 U.S. Federal Census
- 4 Type 'Lula' in the First Name box
- 5 Type 'Piper' in the Last Name box
- 6 Select South Carolina in the State box
- 7 Click the Search button
- 8 Click 'Lula Piper' under the Name field

3. That's my grandfather, Atlas Piper Jr., on the census record. Can I find out when he died?

- 7 From the Search page click South Carolina on the U.S. map.
- 8 Click Social Security Death Index from the database list
- 9 Type 'Atlas' in the First Name box
- 10 Type 'Piper' in the Last Name box
- 11 Type 1921 in the Year box under Birth Date
- 12 Click Search

4. Do you have an ancestral chart I can use to record this information?

- 1 Click the Charts and Forms tab at the top of the search screen
- 2 Click Download Form under Ancestral Chart