

American Slavery Resource is a collection of thousands of interviews with former slaves conducted under the Works Progress Administration, primarily in the 1930s. Users may use American Slavery Resource within the library or by remote access.

Go to: RCPL (<http://www.myrcl.com>)
Click on: Research & Learning
Click on: Research Tools
Click on: History
Scroll down to: American Slavery Resource
Click On: inside the library OR home access

Computer commands, field names and mouse actions are in Italics.
Text that you must type is within single quote marks (' ').

★ To return to the main search screen, click on the HOME button at the top of the screen.

1. How can I browse through interviews with South Carolina slaves?

- ❑ Using the scroll bar in the middle of the page, scroll down and click on American Slave: South Carolina Narratives Volume 3
- ❑ Click on a name in the list to read that person's interview.

2. I am looking for information about Dinah Allen from Mississippi.

- ❑ Type 'Dinah Allen' in the quick search box
- ❑ Click on The American Slave – Mississippi Narratives
- ❑ Click on Allen, Dinah to read her interview

3. How can I find a list of all those who were interviewed?

- ❑ Click on Subject Category at the right of the page
- ❑ Click on American History
- ❑ Click on American History—Nineteenth Century
- ❑ Click on Comprehensive Name Index for The American Slave
- ❑ Use the scroll bar to move up and down the page and the blue arrows at the top right to navigate through the pages of the document.